Dogs

You know that a dog is a man's best friend. The dog is also man's oldest friend.

More than ten thousand years ago, dogs didn't live with people. They were wild.

Now dogs live with people and do many good things for them. Dogs can be "eyes" for blind people. There was a dog, Bruno, who saved 40 people in the mountains. Dogs help geologists to find metals. They help police officers to catch criminals.

If you have a dog, you know how clever dogs are. You can teach your dog to do many tricks: to bring things to you, to carry your bag when you do shopping, to help you with your school-bag when you come home from school.

Dogs usually like to swim and you can teach your dog to swim. But you must remember that some dogs are afraid of water.

Where do you leave your dog, when you go on holiday? Leave him in good hands: with a neighbour or a family friend. Take your dog to these people before you go away. Sit down and talk to them. Show your dog that they are your friends and he will like them.

Take care of your dog; never let him run wild in the street. If you are good to your dog, he will be your real friend.

Three Centres of Power

There are three centres of power in London. Buckingham Palace is the centre of royal power. The Houses of Parliament are the centre of political power. Westminster Abbey is the centre of church power.

Buckingham Palace was built in 1703 by the Duke of Buckingham. King George III bought the palace in 1761. It is now the official home of the British Royal family of the former Queen Elizabeth II. There are nearly six hundred rooms in the palace.

The two Houses of Parliament (the House of Lords and the House of Commons) are in the Westminster Palace. It was built between 1840 and 1860. It was designed by architect Sir Charles Barry. The original Palace of Westminster was the home for the Royal family until the 16th century. Then it became the meeting place of the Parliament.

Westminster Abbey was a Norman church. The present building was started in 1245 by King Henry III. Westminster Abbey is a very important church. Nearly all the English Kings and Queens were crowned in Westminster Abbey. In 1953, Queen Elizabeth II was crowned in the Abbey.

...I'm having a party this weekend. I'm really excited about it, but I want your advice about planning it.

... What's the best thing to do for food and why?... What kind of entertainment should I have?... Should I have the party indoors or outdoors?...

Jill

Dear Jill!

I'm glad to hear from you! I value that you want me to help you with a fascinating question!

Planning the party is an important deal, we must overthink it in advance. So the sooner, the better!

First, I think you should prepare for a picnic with cool snacks and drinks. That's why your party must be organised outside, considering this autumn happened to be warm.

As for a kind of entertainment, I recommend you to bring a monopoly game about yourself, then go to the amusement park.

I guess it's gonna be lit! Now it's time to go. I look forward to getting another email from you.

Lots of love,

N.

Today I want to talk about "keeping animals in zoos". I don't think that 1P Keep animals in a zoo is really <sup>a</sup> huge problem, but some people like to ~~discuss~~ <sup>to</sup> discuss about ~~save animals~~ "how to save animals". I will give you 3 arguments, for and free arguments "against" about this topic.

First argument, "for" is that employers of the zoos ~~are~~ <sup>60</sup> give them <sup>2 or 3</sup> food 3 times a ~~day~~. It means that animals are ~~safe~~ <sup>in safe</sup>.

Next argument is that animals have all <sup>90</sup> things that they need to live: a house, a grass, ~~a~~ small lakes and etc.

The last argument is that they have a ~~medicine~~ <sup>100</sup> doctors, ~~with~~ <sup>they</sup> whose always can help them.

But, there's have ~~a~~ some problems.

First argument, "against" is that ~~the~~ wild animals more like wild nature than the zoos. <sup>130</sup> In wild nature they have more free space.

Next argument is that some animals are in danger ~~over~~ because of hunters.

<sup>150</sup> The last argument is that <sup>154</sup> it's hard for some animals to live in zoos.

1N In my opinion, ~~it's~~ better for some animals to keep in ~~the~~ zoos like pandas but not for all.

To keep or not to keep animals in zoos?

The topic of keeping animals in zoos is very actual now.
But is keeping animals in zoos a good decision?

Talking about advantages, seeing unusual animals in zoos help people to understand the nature of this world. Secondly, zoos have a healthcare for animals, so they have less chances to die because any infection. Thirdly, animals can be not afraid of enemy animal could kill them in a wildlife.

But there are also disadvantages. Firstly, some animals don't get enough care in zoos and die because of it. Secondly, some of them are not able to live in the zoo because of climate. Thirdly, some people don't follow the rules of the zoo and get too close to animals, so, accidents happen.

In conclusion, I'd say that keeping animals in zoos can be good but zoo workers must care about animals and be very attentive.
